

Delighting audiences from a young age on her first instrument and first musical love, Mimi & Piano embodies the emotion, feeling and performance as intended by the original songwriters of the greatest songs of all time.

Accepted into the prestigious and exclusive Victorian College of the Arts at age 17, graduating with a degree in vocal performance, MIMI's love of dazzling audiences with her range, tonality and musicality has been a joyous love affair of music.

Elevating your extraordinary moment with her powerful vocals weaved through her interpretations of pop, jazz, soul and classics, her voice has been heard at some of the most prestigious stages across the country including The Arts Centre VIC, to large crowds at Federation Square to an intimate performance for Hugh Jackman and even a solo performance at Skopje Jazz Festival.

Influenced by every corner of showbiz, from soul, funk, pop, jazz, gospel, Top 40, disco, world music and musicals, MIMI delivers all your favourites with her unique flair and stage presence.
